

Lavender Scallops

Kalanchoe fedtschenkoi

- Native to Madagascar, I'm a flowering succulent with flat, pale green leaves that have scalloped pink edges.
- I grow long stems with beautiful, bell-shaped flowers that vary in color from pink to brown.
- I love lots of sunlight and regular watering. Be sure to let the top of my soil dry between waterings.

