

Pink Iceplant

Oscularia deltoides

- I'm a low-growing, versatile succulent with gorgeous dark pink stems and angled green leaves that have little teeth on them. In spring, I'll bloom large purple flowers.
- My long stems make me a perfect addition to any hanging basket.
- In the warmer months, I need water whenever the top inch of my soil dries out. In cool temps, I only need water once a month.

